

Use as directed.

Always take your medication as prescribed.

Not following directions can interfere with treating your illness, leading to complications and a lower quality of life.

For additional resources or to find a doctor in your area, log in to your plan's website.

www.PAISC.com